

Peninsula Connections for Early Childhood Invites You to a Presentation

The Images of Learning Project

Making visible the competencies of children and the work of Early Childhood Educators

Through photos, dialogue and reflections, this exhibit highlights children researching their world and communicating their learning.

Passionate and experienced Early Childhood Educators, Kim Atkinson and Danielle Davis, authors of this Project, will present perspectives and experiences which frame their practice with young children.

“Images of Learning: Enriching your program with Reflective Practice and Documentation”

LOCATION: Bayside Middle School (Multi-Purpose Room)
TIME: 5:30 – 8:00 p.m. (Dinner & Exhibit Viewing 5:30-6:30)
DATE: Thursday, Nov.18th, 2010
NOTE: A certificate for 3 hours of ProD will be issued

Another exciting opportunity for early childhood providers, kindergarten teachers, school administrators and community resource persons to make connections, and learn together.

Thank you for sharing this invitation with interested colleagues.

RSVP by Friday, Nov.12th to dmann@sd63.bc.ca

Questions?

Janis Johnson, Co-ordinator, PCEC
peninsulaconnections@beaconcs.ca or phone 250-415-3535.

Please send us your email address (if we haven't communicated with you through email) so that we can connect electronically with information and invitations in the future. Thanks!

Beacon
Community Services

Saanich Schools
Great Places to Learn
& Safe Places to Be