Full-Day K – Making it Play!

July 19 – 21 or July 19 – 23, 2010

A play-based, invitational, child-responsive orientation to planning and implementation that honours the integrity of childhood and the competence and capabilities of young learners.

Offering a rich roster of renowned speakers ...

Dr. Alison Preece – Coordinator of ECE programs at UVIC, co-author of HOP, and Young Writers in the Making, and international early years consultant and advocate.

Dr. Marilyn Chapman – Director of the Institute for Early Childhood Education and Research, UBC, lead author of the Primary Program and the new Full Day Kindergarten Program Guide, and an expert in early literacy.

Colleen Politano – curricular leader, exemplary kindergarten teacher, co-author of the Primary Program and many resource books for teachers. Colleen's sessions on young children are in high demand across the continent.

Dr. Vivienne Temple – creator and co-author of the Healthy Opportunities for Preschoolers (HOP) program and materials; internationally recognized for her research on physical activity for those with disabilities, and for her work on using movement to enhance learning.

Dr. Enid Elliot – tireless advocate for young children and the ECE community. Author of We're Not Robots: Listening to the Voices of Daycare Providers. National leader in the movement to connect children with nature.

Dr. Jennifer Thom and Dr. Werner Liedtke, co-authors of Making Mathematics Meaningful – For Children Ages 4 – 7. Both research and write extensively about approaches to mathematics that nurture and sustain children's conceptual growth.

Dr. Michele Tanaka – UVIC – brings wide experience with young children in cross-cultural settings. Her research focuses on teacher inquiry and nourishing the learning spirit.

Dr. Michelle Tannock – U. of Nevada – known for her seminal work on rough and tumble play and on fostering the kindness of children.

Pamela Quigg – recognized for her expertise and leadership as a kindergarten teacher, her books on science, socials, and math, and her practical sessions that are in demand Canada-wide.

AND – a panel featuring administrators of school district and community programs for children, including Sherri Bell (Victoria), Marlene Dergousoff (Sannich), Carolyn Vincent (Sooke), and Jan White (Success by Six).
